Albina Community Bank Names Susan L. (Sue) Campo Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Albina Community Bank, a local certified Community Development Financial Institution, announced today that Susan L. (Sue) Campo has been named Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Campo brings 30+ years of accounting and finance expertise to Albina; including senior management roles at Intel, U.S. Bancorp, NW Bank, and Bank of Oswego. Her areas of expertise include financial accounting, regulatory reporting, human resources, compliance, and risk management. Ms. Campo's appointment was effective April 25, 2016.

"We are thrilled that Ms. Campo has joined Albina Community Bank," said Cheryl Cebula, President and Chief Executive Officer of Albina Community Bank. "As a key member of the senior management team, her diverse professional experience will help contribute to the future success of our company."

Albina Community Bank is a local, full-service, independent community bank. Albina offers a wide range of competitive banking solutions, with a mission to promote jobs, growth of small businesses, and wealth in our local Portland neighborhoods. Albina is one of approximately 120 financial services organizations across the United States certified by the U.S. Treasury Department's Community Development Financial Institutions Fund as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). Albina is the only CDFI-certified commercial bank headquartered in Oregon, and operates from five local Portland locations.
